Attention small and minority business owners!

Small and minority businesses owners interested in increasing their exposure to work on State, local and federal government contracting projects are encouraged to attend a free workshop focused on Maryland's Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) certification program.

Demystify the Application Process

☑ Receive a comprehensive overview of the application process.

☑ Learn more about the State's procurement resources and current contract opportunities.

☑ Meet with a certification expert one-on-one.

Who Should Attend?

☑ Firms interested in learning about the benefits of MBE/DBE certification.

☑ Firms with specific questions about the application and/or the application process.

☑ Firms seeking assistance in completing the application.

The MBE/DBE Application Assistance Workshop is hosted by the Maryland Department of Transportation's (MDOT) Office of Minority Business Enterprise (OMBE) – the official certification agency for the State.

The free workshop is held the first Tuesday of every month. Pre-registration is strongly encouraged.
