

Could this be Downtown Aberdeen?

Come to the Aberdeen Station Area Master Plan Presentation and find out!

WHAT?

Like many small towns with commuter rail, downtown Aberdeen has the potential to capture new investment to enhance its value as a civic heart of the Aberdeen community. Plans can help to create a new neighborhood for people and businesses wanting to locate close to rail service. The area in the vicinity of the Aberdeen Amtrak/MARC station has been recently designated as a state Transit Oriented Development (TOD) focus area. Join us to find out what this means for the City and what may be possible for the area in and around the station.
